Old Business:

Minutes: The January and February general meeting minutes as posted on the K6SA.net website were approved. We did not have sufficient officers at the meeting to approve the January Board minutes.

New Business:

Treasurer's Report: Don was absent so there was no report.

Net Check-ins: Don and Rob were absent so there was no report.

Electronics Flea Market: The Red Cross will sponsor the monthly event at De Anza College. It will be Saturday 3/10 in lot A. For details, see <http://www.electronicfleamarket.com/>

CERT Academy: Ray reported that Jim Yoke emailed a flyer for the upcoming CERT Academy. Training will be Thursdays 6-9pm on 4/26, 5/3, 5/10, 5/17, and 5/24 and Saturday 5/26 at the Saratoga Senior Center in the Saunders Room. Registration is $35. For details, go to www.saratoga.ca.us and click on "Things to Do", "Recreation Classes", "Recreation Activities" or call 408 868-1249.

Ham License Class: Ray suggested that the club plan for the traditional ham licensing class and exam soon after the completion of the CERT Academy.

Presentation: Eric Norris, WD6DBM, presented a detailed slide show of his activities in moon bounce operations on the uhf and vhf bands.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned about 9:20 pm.
